Sentences of from Three to Six Years for Officers of Sterling Debentures Company of New York

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] New York, April 7.—Seven former officers and agents of the Sterling debenture company today received prison sentences from three to six years for using the United States mails to defraud investors in the stock of enterprises promoted by their corporation.
In sending them to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta Federal Judge Anderson declared that although the defendants maintained that they were penniless they had in fact made millions at the expense of thousands of victims throughout the country.
The heaviest sentences, six years, were imposed on George M. Middlebrook of Chicago, first vice president; Frank Schumaker, a former president; and Henry H. Platt, a minor officer.
Benjamin Moore, president of the Oxford Iron Mills of North Brookfield, Mass., was given a four year term. He was a chemist and inventor, whose alleged discovery of a process to make flax yarn from flax straw at an enormous saving, was widely advertised by the company in its campaign for the sale of the Oxford mills stock.
Three year sentences were imposed on William Stone, a patent expert; Elwin A. Barron, a prospectus writer, and W. S. Edwards.
The seven were found guilty last night in federal district court after a long trial, at which they tried to prove that Mudge's process was all they had claimed for it and that they were engaged in a bona fide stock selling campaign.

TODAY IN CONGRESS
SENATE.
Met at noon.
Committee voted for fifteen days of public hearings on repeal of Panama tolls exemption.
Senator Works spoke on the treaty aspect of the tolls controversy and Senator Poindexter urged his resolution to delay action until diplomatic correspondence had been published.
By a vote of 31 to 29 Senator Keaton's resolution to abolish executive sessions except for certain subjects was tabled.
Senator Poindexter's resolution calling on the president for an explanation of the language of his Panama tolls exemption resolutions was referred to the foreign relations committee.
HOUSE.
Debate was resumed on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.
The charges against Representative McMillen of Illinois, growing out of the lobby investigation were again considered by the judiciary committee.
Rules committee heard Representative Hanes in support of his charge of a water power trust at the Keokuk, dam.
Lands committee began considering the oil and coal land leasing bill in executive session.

Twelve Rocky Mountain Exec-

ORGANIZATION AT OPENING SESSION

Principal Address Tomorrow by A. A. Jones, First Assistant Secretary of Interior on Department Policies.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Denver, Colo., April 7.—What was declared to be the most far-reaching effort made to resist government reclamation of the public lands of the west began today when the western governors' conference opened its annual meeting here.
With bills before congress designed still further to extend the federal reclamation policy, the executives of ten or more Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast states convened with the avowed intention of proclaiming on behalf of the states the right of more easy settlement of the public domain within their boundaries.
Governor E. M. Ammons of Colorado said before the conference opened that the bills now under consideration before congress would, if passed, erect, not every acre of government land remaining in the west, with the exception of precious metal land, under a leasing system.
The governors present for the opening session were Tasker L. Child, Nevada; Joseph M. Carey, Wyoming; Ernest Lister, Washington; Oswald West, Oregon; John M. Haines, Idaho; E. M. Ammons, Colorado.
Governors William Spry of Utah and S. V. Stewart of Montana were expected during the day, while Governors J. P. A. Strong of Alaska, William C. McDonald, New Mexico, and George W. Hunt, Arizona, were expected tomorrow.
The conference of governors was preliminary to the irrigation conference called by Secretary of the Interior Lane, which will open Thursday. The governors planned to formulate a program bearing upon the irrigation problem for submission to the irrigation conference. It was apparent that the object sought is to secure a program on which the western states and the federal government can agree in handling public questions.
The opening session was devoted to organization and addresses of welcome by Governor Ammons and Mayor J. M. Perkins of Denver.
The governors were entertained at a luncheon at the Denver club by John C. Shaffer, editor of the Denver Times and the Rocky Mountain News.
At the afternoon session Governor Carey of Wyoming was on the program to discuss "How We May Help Carey Act Projects." Governor Carey was the author of the Carey, or irrigated homestead act, under which settlers may secure government land under irrigation projects, paying for the land at 30 cents an acre and for the water at rates fixed by the state land boards in co-operation with the federal authorities.
The governors' conference will continue through tomorrow, closing with a banquet tomorrow at which the principal speakers will be A. A.
Jones, first assistant secretary of the interior; Clay Tullman, commissioner of the general land office; F. H.
Newell, director of the reclamation service; and Governors Carey, Spry and Stewart.

VOTE SHOWS STRENGTH

Poindexter's Resolution Asking Explanation of President's Repeal Message Sent to Committee 35 to 27
[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Washington, April 7.—Fifteen days of public hearings, beginning on April 2, on the Sims bill to repeal the Panama tolls exemption, were declared on today by the senate canal committee.
Administration supporters pressing for a minimum of delay in getting the Sims bill out of committee professed to be satisfied with the plan for fifteen days of hearings provided added time was not reserved for consideration of the bill after hearings are over. The hearings will give opportunity for threshing out various amendments, principal among them one to reaffirm the sovereignty of the United States over the Canal Zone and its right under the treaty to grant an exemption to coastwise ships if it desires to do so.
The controversy continued to eclipse interest in all other business in the senate chamber. Senator Works, Republican, of California made a lengthy speech analyzing the treaty obligations of the United States.
"The granting of this exemption is a purely domestic matter," said he.
"There could be no discrimination against Great Britain because no foreign nation can enter into the coastwise trade. Some of our own representatives have out-Britished the British in their claims for that nation."
Senator Brandegee, Republican, cast the only vote against the hearings, saying he did so because he believed the committee's action would have no weight. He urged that the repeal bill be returned to the senate without any report and that the right be transferred to the floor.
The committee adjourned until Thursday with the understanding that the authors of various bills and resolutions on the subject will then be heard, pending the arrival of witnesses from New Orleans and the Pacific coast.
By a vote of 35 to 27, the first taken in the senate on the Panama tolls exemption controversy, Senator Poin-dexter's resolution asking President Wilson for an explanation of the language of his repeal message was referred to the foreign relations committee.
Urging passage of the Poindexter resolution, Senator Lippitt, Republican, declared he was undecided how to vote on the repeal bill and believed it the duty of the senate to find out what apprehensions the president had as to the country's foreign relations which had prompted the language of his message.
"I have not found any man anywhere who understands what in the world that language means," he said.
Then the senate adopted Senator Brandegee's resolution, calling on the state department for all "information, correspondence and records," bearing on the negotiations for the Hay-Pancarte treaty and the interpretation of that treaty.

CY WARMAN FAMOUS
POET AND STORY
WRITER IS DEAD
[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Chicago, April 7.—Cy Warman, a poet and short story writer, died here today after a long illness.
Warman was stricken with paralysis in his hotel here this winter. The outlook was unfavorable from the first. He was removed to a hospital a few weeks ago, where he continued to sink until the end today.
Cy Warman was known as the "poet of the Rockies," and was a pioneer in the school of railroad literature. His stories about railroad men were based on personal experiences at Salida, Colo., where in the early eighties he worked in turn as a

WE ARE RECEIVING NEW POPULAR STYLES IN

Rosebud Jewelry, Millinery, Men's Hats, etc that are the rage of the season—styles that set New York wild. They are entirely different from what you are in the habit of seeing. They can be found here at popular prices.

The Latest Fad, "Rosebud Jewellery" at Popular Prices

Those new, clever designs in Rosebud Jewelry are the classiest thing the East has to offer. The prices now are within reach of all, ranging from a dollar to two and a half.

We are showing a large assortment of these in "La Valiers," Hat, Pins, Bar Pins, Cuff Pins, Ear Rings, Brooches and imitation Coral Beads. The dainty tinting and cleverness of design combine to make one of the prettiest jewelry patterns ever known. If you admire the "new" when it's "new," then step in and inspect our line.

MEN--that new Easter Suit is here at a price you can afford to pay.

Suits for young men, and men who stay young, are to be found here in all models and colors, that are taking the east by storm—those smart new English cuts, that give a man that personality that places him as a fashionable dresser among men, are here in the very latest models. For the more conservative man our blues and greys will meet with his approval. Every thread pure wool, hand tailored and the price we ask is only fifteen dollars. Others are asking twenty for no better suits. Our clothing department is the talk of the town—because QUALITY MEETS PRICE.

Imported Chick Styles in Millinery

For the lady who desires that appearance of dress that bespeaks of a knowledge of the latest in fashion. Our showing of selected American and imported Millinery stands withionable dressers accept our millinery salon as the center of fashion for woman's headwear.

Our keen observance of the latest styles, shapes, colors and materials, and the making of them into the most exquisite patterns imaginable, has built our trade upon a solid foundation with the best leaders of fashion who appreciate the op-

Paris Newspapers Hint at Prosecution of Former Fi-to Murder of Calmette

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Paris, April 7.—The question whether Joseph Caillaux, former minister of finance, may be charged as an accessory of his wife in the assassination of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, is the subject of general discussion in the newspapers today.
The publication of testimony of President Poincaré indicating that Caillaux had at least influenced his wife's action has given rise to the suggestion that he may be brought into the investigation as an accomplice.
The magazine of the preliminary inquiry, Henri Boucard, called both M. Caillaux and Louis Barthou, former premier, for examination today.
M. Caillaux gave the magistrate details of his private life and mentioned his domestic difficulties. He said that while he was at Marnes with Mme. Gueydan, his former wife, a package of letters was taken from his desk. Among them were two letters he had written to the present Mme. Caillaux.
M. Caillaux said that he had offered to Mme. Gueydan the alternative of a divorce or a reconciliation, but on condition that the letters taken from his desk be returned to him.
An agreement, however, was made to bury them, which was done in the presence of his wife, himself and his secretary. Mme. Gueydan, said M.
Caillaux, declared she had not taken photographs or copies of the letters.
A reconciliation ensued but later on he and Mme. Gueydan were divorced.
Julius Herbaux, counselor of the court of Cassation, was today appointed to succeed Victor Fabre as chief public prosecutor.

Grand Jury Brings in Grand Larceny Charges Involving Stealing of $625,000 from Bankrupt Concerns
New York, April 7.—Fourteen new indictments against Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel, heads of the bankrupt Siegel enterprises were handed in today in connection with the failure of the Henry Siegel and company private bank and the bankrupt department stores which had been controlled by them. The indictments charge grand larceny and violations of the state banking laws.
The grand jury charges deal with $625,000 alleged to have been obtained by means of false statements.
Those for violations of the state banking law charge that the men accepted deposits for the bank after its failure.
Three other indictments charging the same crimes have already been returned against the men.

were injured when a bomb exploded in Guemano's store here today.
The injured men are in a serious condition. Leo, Gueber, a messenger boy, who carried the bomb to the store, was blown into the street by the explosion. The store was badly wrecked. The messengers told the police that two Italians gave him the package with instruction to take it to a certain number on Lafayette Boulevard, East. Failing to find the number, he stopped at the store for information.

The crew had taken refuge in the rigging. A life boat was sent out in the burning vessel, which was rolling in a heavy sea.

TWO BANDITS SHOT IN DARING RAID
ON BANK

Party of Six Swoop Down on New Hazleton, B. C. Institution and Four Get Away with $1,100

New Hazleton, B. C., April 7.—Two bandits were killed here today in a battle between a band of robbers and a large posse of citizens, following the burglary of the Union Bank of Canada branch. Six men held up the bank and four got away with $1,100 cash.
A posse is pursuing them.
The bank, a substantial building of log construction, standing apart from other buildings, had been opened only a few minutes for business today when the robbers appeared. Two men armed with rifles snatched up the road, two others came from the woods at the rear of the bank and two more came from another direction. The first two stepped inside the door of the bank and with rifles round called out "hands up." The four others appeared almost at the same moment.
One robber stepped forward reaching over the teller's desk to the drawer and took all the currency within reach.
The bandits were not more than half a minute in the bank. As they backed out the clerks began to reach for their pistols and the robbers fired several shots. Fenton, a ledger keeper, suffered a slight scalp wound.
The shooting alarmed the town and several cowboys who happened to be in a hardware store got their pistols into play. They were backed up by citizens and within a few moments the fustle was general. Shooting from cover the cowboys did such effective work that two of the robbers fell dead in their tracks as they raced along the road toward cover. A posse is in pursuit of the survivors.
It is believed the band is the one that robbed the same bank two months ago and has committed a half dozen other bank robberies in the Pacific northwest.

THOUGHT TO BE SAME BOLD, BAD BANDITS
Vancouver, B. C., April 7.—The band of robbers which came to grief at New Hazleton today is supposed to have been the one which in the last year has robbed banks at New Hazleton, B. C., Granite Falls, Wash., Abbotsford, B. C., and Elma, Wash.
After the Elma robbery last month robbers escaped with $4,350.

MORTUARY

Joseph Plochowski, 53 years old, died early today at his home, 107 Coal avenue. He had lived here sixteen years, coming to Albuquerque from Milwaukee, Wis. He is survived by a wife.
Mr. Plochowski was a musician, an organist of great skill. He lived a retired life here. He was born in Germany, coming to this country when a child.
The body will lie in state at C. T.
French's chapel, 501 West Central avenue, from 10 to 12 o'clock tomorrow morning. It will be sent to Milwaukee for burial on train No. 2 tomorrow. Mrs. Plochowski will accompany the remains.
Miss Gertrude Estey.
Miss Gertrude Estey, 21 years old, died at 4 o'clock yesterday morning at her apartment in the Highlands.
She had been here eight months, having come from Greenville, Ohio. The body will be shipped to Greenville, tomorrow, by C. T. French, undertaker.
Mrs. J. Susanna Juston.
Mrs. J. Susanna Juston, who came here two weeks ago from her home in Colorado, died this morning at a local sanitarium. The body is at the undertaking establishment of F. H.
Crollott, awaiting advice from the family. Mrs. Juston's husband is expected to arrive tomorrow.
Catherine Youins.
Catherine Youins, six months old, died today at 716 South Second street.
The baby was brought here a few days ago by its mother, on a visit, from St. Johns, Ark. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the Crollott chapel.
